Subject: Butt hinge reinforcements

Description: New butt hinge reinforcement plates are now available. The P2092 is for a standard hinge and will take the place of the current P1218 and P1219. The P2093 is for heavy hinges and takes the place of the current P1541 and P1542. Both new parts will work in both the door and the frame and will also work for heavy wall doors and frames with no additional machining. List price is $5.00 for each part.
